PRACTICE AREAS:

- General Litigation
- Plaintiffs PI: General
- Class Action/Mass Torts

David I. Shulick's practice focuses on litigation in the areas of personal injury, class action, commercial, employment and consumer fraud. Mr. Shulick also represents a core group of corporate clients and commercial landlords by serving as counsel regarding business and financial matters. He is a graduate of Temple University Law School, class of 1994, with honors, and holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting. He is the President of the Delaware Valley High School – Bustleton, a secondary education institution that specializes in serving "at-risk" youth, and serves on the Advisory and Standards Committee of the Pennsylvania Department of Education, Alternative Education Division. He has successfully litigated hundreds of matters and secured multi-million dollar settlements.

Considered among the best in their profession, Rising Stars represent the top 2.5% of the outstanding emerging lawyers who are age 40 and under, or have been practicing 10 years or less. The Pennsylvania Rising Stars for 2005 were selected from the results of an extensive nomination and polling process conducted by Law & Politics and published in the December 2005 issue of Philadelphia magazine and in Pennsylvania Super Lawyers - Rising Stars Edition.
